SMALL PROPORTION IS PASSED

Only Three Out of 20 Get Through for
First Grade and Both Candidates for Second Grade Certificates Fail.
Examined on May 13.

The results of the examination held in the Ninth district for certificates for mine foremen were announced by State Mine Inspector P. J. Walsh today. The results show that in increasing the standard for mine foremen the new State law has made it difficult for candidates to pass. Of the 20 men who took the examination for mine foremen of the first grade, only three were passed by the examining board. The two candidates for second grade certificates failed while only eight out of 20 made the percentage of required for an assistant mine foreman's certificate.

The five best candidates made a better showing, the required percentage having been reduced from 75 to 65. Of the 27 who took the examination, 22 made the required mark.

Even those who passed the examination are not to be considered as successful. They are required to pass an oral examination, which will be held at the State Mine here on Wednesday, May 15, beginning at 9 A. M.

The examining committee, composed of State Mine Inspector P. J. Walsh, P. R. Fries, representing the operators, James Conway, a miner, and W. J. Hicks as Secretary, examined more than 3,000 sheets before the estimates could be completed. For more than eight days they were steadily engaged at the task. The board was strict in its adherence of the letter and the spirit of the law, but used every effort to judge the examination papers fairly.

The three men who passed the examination for mine foreman of the first grade were: Mr. William of Connelville, a fire boss at Davidson; David Bennett, Dunbar, R. P. No. 22, a fire boss at Dunbar; and Aaron Bell, of Waterbury, a fire boss at Linton.

Those passing the examination for assistant mine foreman certificates were all fire bosses with the exception of Isaac L. Davis, a tracklayer at Leaning No. 3. Mr. Davis passed the examination for fire boss as well as that of assistant mine foreman. The ones who passed as assistant mine foreman were as follows: William Ambrose, Vanderbilt, fire boss at Coalbrook No. 1, Edward Doyle, Leaning, fire boss at Leaning No. 1; John Snyder, Grindstone, fire boss at Coalbrook No. 1; William Butler, North, fire boss at Coalbrook No. 1; Clarence Nicholson, Upper Middlebrook, fire boss at Coalbrook No. 1; Frank Strickler, Dawson, fire boss at Linton.

The fire bosses who passed were as follows: Isaac L. Davis, Dunbar, R. P. No. 22; George H. Haggerty, Smokey, Michael O'Leary, Leaning No. 1; Robert Shullenger, Vanderbilt, Roy Holt, Connelville, R. P. No. 27; Hugh Lacey, Leaning No. 1; Andrew Strickler, Waterbury; E. F. Woodward, Holston; Norman B. Becker, Dunbar, R. P. No. 22; Elmer E. Fox, Connelville; John B. Winkler, Connelville, R. P. No. 25; John H. McElroy, Connelville; Stephen Stuech, Holston; R. L. Kurlz, Waterbury; Felix McIntyre, Leaning No. 1; Thomas McGarrett, Broad Ford; J. W. Madison, Connelville; Harry Hassen, Holston; John L. Kane, Connelville, R. P. No. 35; W. J. Yocum, Dunbar, R. P. No. 32; L. E. Arson, Waterbury; John Hufey, Broad Ford; Herbert Pratt, Dunbar.

Every time she put her head in the door to argue, Mrs. Washington said, her husband would threaten to throw the lamp. Finally she went around to the back door and forced an entrance. At the door she found a man who came into the kitchen to get something to eat. While he was engaged in investigating the potter Mrs. Washington says she went to her room and secured a kimono and one shoe.

Then she went to a neighbor's house where she secured some clothing. Afraid that Washington would find the house, she was threatened, she went back to get more of her clothes. About 1 o'clock she escaped and went down town to spend all night at the home of a relative on the West Side. On the way she met Patricia Geiger, to whom she told her troubles. He secured Officer Stoner and together they went to the house and arrested Washington, who was in bed.

Following the police court hearing, which at times proved spicy, Burgess Evans held a private hearing in his office at the hotel where Washington resided. Mrs. Washington's story and told an entirely different tale. He said that he reached home at 7:15 and that his wife "acted like a crazy woman."

At the private hearing Washington admitted that she had told the truth of her story and signed an affidavit to leave her home in the future. They left City Hall together.

Condemnation Which is Brought to Court.

Health Officer B. R. Rutter this morning for the first time exercised his power to condemn fruit and vegetable units for city delivery. A carload of potatoes consigned to H. Kronick, a peddler here, was condemned yesterday afternoon and the car ordered to be taken to Youngwood where it will be dumped at the refuse grounds of the Pennsylvania railroad.

The car was shipped from Pittsburgh with a checkered record. Complaint was made to the Health Officer and he investigated, finding that the potatoes were unfit for use. Most of them, he said, were rotten. Before the condemnation Kronick had taken away several wagon loads.

BELA B. SMITH WILL BE
HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPALStated on Good Authority That He Will Succeed Bruce U. P.
Columb.

It is stated on good authority that Vice Principal Bela B. Smith will on Monday be elected Principal of the High School to succeed Bruce U. P. Columb, who has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. The elevation of Smith to the principalship will not come as a surprise. He is one of the most popular members of the High School faculty and stands high in the estimation of the School Board not only as a teacher, but as a good as a citizen.

Smith's name was suggested for Principal soon after he first joined the faculty, several years ago, but was never presented before the board. He has always taken an active interest in scholastic affairs, coached the football team through several seasons and has been interested in the students generally. Smith is popular among the young folks attending High School. He is a strict disciplinarian.

It is said that Mr. Smith will have no opposition for the position and that the board will be unanimous in its support of his candidacy. The offer of the principalship, it is said, was tendered Mr. Smith without solicitation on his part.

Family trouble beginning some time back and culminating in a quarrel last night resulted in Mrs. Howard Washington staying out in the cold breeze throughout most of the entire night. The matter was discussed in all the papers this morning and the fact that she was chased away from her home and after a private hearing the couple became reconciled and left the City Hall together.

Mrs. Washington alleged that her husband came home at 1 o'clock last night after visiting several places of ill repute. Mrs. Washington said he came to abuse her. She was in her night clothing and when she remonstrated with him, he seized a lamp and drove her from the house. The couple reside in Coalbrook on the Tinnock and the front porch at 11 E. M. in a night dress in hardly a place of comfort.

Every time she put her head in the door to argue, Mrs. Washington said, her husband would threaten to throw the lamp. Finally she went around to the back door and forced an entrance. At the door she found a man who came into the kitchen to get something to eat. Special to The Courier.
UNIONTOWN, May 10.—In the equity case of M. Stannan against Lewis Morris, which case was before the court on Thursday, a decree of court dissolving the partnership of the two big game was handed down on Thursday afternoon. The partnership for some time has been under the control of William Stannan as receiver. Stannan and Morris conducted a business at Vanderbilt.

Stannan brought the action to enforce an alleged agreement by which he was to purchase the share of Morris. The parties after coming before Judge Hines in the court of equity amicably agreed to the decree of court without taking testimony. The decree made the following specifications:

The partnership of the big game is dissolved. The property of the firm shall be sold to the highest bidder, bidding to be done in court. (Stannan was the successful bidder.) The successful bidder was obliged to pay to the receiver $500 and must within five days pay $5,000. If there is any balance it is to be paid at the time of the sale of the property. The successful bidder was allowed credit for the release of undisputed partnership debts.

Possession of the property will be given on payment of the $5,000. Each partner is required to file a statement within 10 days. The receiver must within 30 days file his account or show cause for not so doing. The rule to show cause why the specific performance of the alleged contract should not be enforced was discharged. The costs of the proceedings are to be paid out of the estate by the receiver.

Five municipal items were filed by the Borough of Dawson through Attorney H. C. May against prominent citizens of Dawson on Friday morning. The items are for paying and curbing. The parties who are named as defendants and the amounts specified against each are as follows:

In the suit of John F. Elcher, Charles Elcher and Charles L. Graft, into partnership doing business as the Broadway Planning Mill Company, now for the use of their successor John F. Elcher, against J. R. Elcher to recover for lumber furnished for the reconstruction of property, the defendant on Friday filed an affidavit of defense admitting a debt of $435.61 and claiming set-offs amounting to $113.71.

NEGRO KILLED BY
BLUESTONE BLASTExplosive Lets Go Before
Firman Has Reached a Place of Safety.

Crushed by Heavy Boulder

Accident Happens at Quarries Near Dunbar Early Yesterday Morning.
Victim LIVES FOR 10 Minutes After Accident But Injury is Fatal.

When John Firman, aged 47, a negro worker at the stone quarries at Bluestone, delayed seeking a place of safety when the fuse for a blast was fired, he was struck by a huge boulder and was instantly killed. The accident took place early yesterday morning.

The blast had been tried and the men were scampering in all directions to a place of safety. For some reason Firman delayed in running or else thought that he was far enough from the blast. The shock, however, proved to be heavy and a big boulder, loosened by the dynamite, fell on Firman, crushing him across the back.

After the shock he lived for nearly 10 minutes, although in an unconscious state. Dr. E. B. Gule of Dunbar was called and he made a trip in his ambulance. Undertaker Burkhart at Dunbar was summoned at the same time. When Dr. Gule arrived life was extinct. The body was removed to the Dunbar undertaking rooms. Later it was transferred to the J. R. Poltz rooms, where it was prepared for burial.

There were no marks across his back there as there had been at the quarry. It is the custom for the men at the quarry to drill for blasts every night. Early in the morning before the other workmen arrive the blasts are put off. Firman had been engaged in putting off the blast at the Bluestone quarries for many years. Before yesterday he never had an accident due to blasting.

Firman had been a resident of Dunbar for nearly 15 years, a greater part of that time being in the employ of the quarry. For many years he lived at the Hill Farm. Two years ago he purchased a small farm near the quarry.

Firman is survived by his wife, Mrs. Belle Firman, one sister, Mrs. Darr of Pittsburg, one brother, George Firman of Cascade, W. Va. He was a member of the Good Templar church at Dunbar and also a member of Youghiogheny Lodge of Colored Odd Fellows.

The funeral will be in charge of the Colored Odd Fellows and will be held from the Old Pompey farm in Dunbar township at which place Firman was born and raised. Interment will take place at the old Paul Cemetery near Dunbar.

Floppers.

Our superlative contemporary, the self-confessed Official Organ of the Tough region Democracy, whose able and active editor and editorial assistants have just returned from their pilgrimage to Harrisburg whence they journeyed to see that the Fayette county delegation did not lack for advice, seriously objects to the observation that the Fayette Democracy, so long faithful to the Old Guard, had "dropped" over to the Reorganizers, and suggests in a superior manner that the Courier "can speak with authority on the subject of dropping and not let the Reorganizers party when Bryan took charge of that party's conscience and fortunes.

There are in politics two distinct classes of Floppers, namely:

1. The Flopper who sunders his party ties for reasons of convenience.

2. The Flopper who sunders his party because of disappointed ambition, personal spite or the promise of political favors at the hand of the enemy.

The Courier, as is well known, belongs to the first class, in fact it always has been. It has never made a party change. The fundamental principles of its political faith. Except for some dead issues, that faith remains unchanged. The Courier did not leave the Democratic party, the Democratic party left it. It could not follow where Bryan led for the reason that the judgment of its editor and proprietor was that the "strong" dogmas adopted at Chicago in 1892 as the new Democratic faith were destined to bring disaster upon the country.

The second class identifies himself with that political party which more closely represents the views of government most likely in his opinion to result in the greatest good to the greatest number of people. The Courier is always a good citizen. Notwithstanding the insinuation of the Official Organ, which speaks from bondage, the Courier is nobody's puppet. There are no strings to it.

The Floppers of the second class have few political principles and no political conscience. They seek only the honors and emoluments. The spotlight appeals to their vanity and the spoils to their greed. They are unscrupulous members of any party; they are disturbers of the peace, destroyers of harmony, sources of weakness instead of strength. In the refined and elegant language of Field Marshal Kitchener, they "do not take their medicine" like "true sports."

The Floppers of the first class included Washington, who fought with the British at Braddock and afterwards led the American army against them, the Floppers of the second class include Arnold, who forsake his country for British gold and power.

If the Fayette county Floppers in the Democratic State Convention voted their convictions of what was best for the Democratic party they are first-class Floppers and deserve praise and honor. They dropped from Guffey's long green to Guffey's lean purse without whim or whimper, and modern Democrats who can do that are Reformers as well as Reorganizers.

Selling cider on Sunday is not a crime though an offense against an ancient and obsolete law, but putting the "stick" in is a violation of modern laws.

THE BOY SCOUT.

By James C. Yukon.

The boy scout tried to get in out of the rain. He buckled his belt one notch tighter and took the last chew of tobacco that remained of a plug which he stole at the corner grocery. Again the boy scout made an effort to get in out of the rain. Night had begun to sink its claws into the scenery and a five mile tramp through a dense hule of underbrush to the mountain cabin of which this month's rent was due was a stiff proposition for the boy scout to face.

The rain and the five mile walk to the mountain joint did not worry the boy scout as much as the idea of Mike Alton, the corner grocer, making information against him for larceny and sending the constable to the wilderness to arrest him.

Each mile he tramped brought him nearer to the cabin and each clasp of thunder caused him to really wish that he had not stolen the plug of tobacco. His hunting suit he had bought on the instant plan and he made up his thoughts that the next time Kolstenstein asked him to pay, he would threaten him with prosecution for dealing with a minor.

The town clock was striking ten when the subject of this narrative arrived at the cabin door. It was too far away from home to hear the town clock strike but it struck all the same regardless of this year's crop of boy scouts.

While he was groping in the darkness and feeling for the door latch, a flash of lightning came along and showed him how to get in. When inside the cabin, the rest was easy. He started a wood fire in the big fireplace, removed his wet clothing and took an alcohol bath.

After he had worked the lameness and tired feeling out of his muscles, he wrapped himself in a new suit of underclothing and a fine blue serge suit, which he bought with a three jack combination. He then started to eat dinner.

He cut seven slices of bear meat and roasted it good and tender over the fire. While the meat was roasting he looked through the big hole in the door to see if the constables was coming up the new State road.

He was also afraid that another constable might come and ask him to pay for a lot of turpentine he stole the year before when he was scouting.

At the point where the bear steaks were roasting, the boy scout took from a coffee sack a lot of prunes which he stole the week before and with his hunting knife he split the steaks and inserted the prunes. When all was roasted to a turn he had bear steak prune pot pie.

He ate bear-prune pie and drank Skimmed wine for an hour. He could have banqueted for ten hours but his stomach was filled. He reloaded his revolver and saw that his supply of carbolic acid and strychnine was dry. Then he loaded his pipe, took down a copy of Ruffalo's poems and went to sleep.

The next morning when the boy scout awoke he sent a wireless message to his mother that he was getting along fine and expected to attend Sunday school in the country, and for her to pay his club dues.

STATE ZOOLOGIST NAMES

DATES FOR DEMONSTRATIONS

Our Orchards in This County Will Be Sprayed by Experts

Next Week.

The annual spring series of public demonstrations in the Model Orchards under the supervision of the Division of Zoology is scheduled to begin on May 13th in the southern counties of this State. These public meetings are held for the purpose of teaching fruit growers the most approved methods of protecting their crop from such insect pests as codling moth, curculio, and the various fungous diseases to which fruit is subject. The dates of the demonstrations in each orchard are listed on the basis of reports of the time of the opening of the blossoms, and the weather prevailing in each locality. Since spraying must not be done while trees are in bloom, but should be performed during the four or five days subsequent to the falling of the petals, the time of spraying for the codling moth is especially important, and efforts are being made to fix the dates for each meeting so as to correspond with these conditions.

The public exercises begin at one o'clock P. M. The demonstrators will be present regardless of the weather and deliver a lecture on the subject of pests which may be controlled by treatment at this time. Literature will be supplied free of charge. Everybody is invited to attend.

Prof. H. A. Surface, Economic Zoologist of the State Department of Agriculture, announces the following dates and places of these public demonstrations to be held during the week in this county:

May 15th, Eliza Warren, Cheat Haven.

May 16th, L. C. Harris, Perryopolis.

May 17th, Thomas N. Gummert, Branchell.

May 18th, Charles F. Colbert, Conneltsville.

Nemo WEEK

VISIT OUR CORSET DEPARTMENT

Now is the Time to Study Corset Comfort—Probably We Can Help You. Come!

"Nemo Week" grows more and more important and interesting every year. New Nemo inventions, not only in construction but in corset fabrics, make Nemo Corsets more and more invaluable to nearly all women.

This year there are some wonderful models, not only in the world-famous "Self-Reducing" line, but in corsets especially designed for SLENDER and medium figures.

No. 354 (see cut) is one of the new "Auto-Massage" Self-Reducing models, which not only reduce the figure all around by confining and re-shaping the surplus flesh, but by constant gentle massage, due to the patented construction of these new corsets, the fat is gradually softened and removed by natural processes, thus making the figure permanently smaller.

Price—$3.50

This is only one example of how Nemo Corsets are in a class alone, entirely different from all others. Most women really need Nemo Service. Perhaps you do. Come and see.

DEAR MADAM:

We presume that you wear corsets. We assume that you want to look stylish. We know that you want corset-comfort. We are CONFIDENT that you want to get the GREATEST VALUE FOR YOUR MONEY when you buy a corset.

Therefore we invite you to visit our Corset Department—NEMO WEEK—and let us demonstrate to you that—

THERE'S A NEMO FOR EVERY FIGURE.

The Nemo line this year is practically new. Even the old favorites are greatly improved and the latest models are so entirely novel that every woman, young or old, will take delight in seeing them. We are anxious to show you the new Nemos. Special Demonstration May 6th to 11th.

MY LADY OF DOUBT
BY RANDALL PARRISH
Author of "Love Under Fire," "My Lady of the North Sea"
Illustrations by HENRY THIEDE
Copyright, 1911, by L. C. CLARK & CO., N.Y.

"I do not pretend to understand the cause of her prostration. But if you listen to my story perhaps you may know what to do." I paused an instant to get a grip on my thoughts. I need not tell all, confess my identity, or mention my personal relations with the daughter. "I am a soldier, Colonel Mortimer, in Maxwell's brigade of Washington's army. What brought me here has nothing to do with the present story. I was in the fight over yonder near Mount Laurel night before last when we captured Delavan's force train."

"What?" burst in the dragoon officer. "Was Delavan defeated, then? Hadn't Grant joined him?"

"Yes to both questions, sir. Delavan was killed, and Grant surrendered. He and his men were paroled, and started for Philadelphia last evening from here."

"From here?" incredulously. "That must be a lie, colonel, for Mount Laurel is between here and the city."

"Nevertheless, it is no lie," I retorted promptly, looking the young fool in the eyes. "I was hiding here for reasons of my own when they came tramping in along that road about the middle of the forenoon yesterday. There was near a hundred Hessians and Rangers, with two German officers, and Grant. I heard them tell Mistress Mortimer this was the nearest place where they were sure of finding provisions, and that they intended to remain until night. I don't know what happened after that, except that the officers went inside, and the men marched around to the back to eat their breakfast."

"What became of you?"

"Oh, I had other business, and never got back alone here until just at daylight this morning. Then I found things this way."

"You don't know what occurred, then?"

"No more than you do. But I've got my opinion. It's this—Grant and his fellows must have left as soon as it was dark, taking the west road, which was the cause of your missing them. It is likely from this man Mike's body, that your daughter and her party were still in the house. It couldn't have been much later when these others got here and made the attack. Mike must have fought them at the front door, but that was all the fight made; there's no sign of any struggle inside."

"Then they never got Claire?" declared Mortimer positively. "That's a certainty, Seldon."

"She would have fought, sir?"

"Like a tiger. I know my little girl. And, besides, Peter would have died before the hand of one of those villains was ever laid upon her."

"But," I protested, "I have searched the house, colonel."

"I imagine your acquaintance with the house is somewhat limited," he replied coldly, turning away. "Seldon, place this fellow under guard in the library here. We will learn later what his business might be in the Jerseys."

To Be Continued.

HERE IS THE RECORD FOR SMALL SIZED EGGS

Small Puffed at Mike's Tries to Break Record for Large Egg and Puffs.

Small egg records are now on the market. Recently verified records of remarkably large eggs were given out but no one claimed the record for having the smallest egg. Now W. T. Muir, the North Pittsburgh street butcher, has an egg which he believes will surpass any other egg in smallness in this vicinity. The egg is a very tiny one, weighing about an ounce and measuring about one inch around the center.

The hen that laid the large egg at Mike's recently died. It did not die as the result of laying the egg however, but a natural death from the stroke of an axe.

PART OF ROSE HERE

Cleaning Department Will Now Have Its Own Apparatus.

One consignment of the hose, ordered by Council recently for cleaning the streets has arrived. The balance was sent from the manufacturers in Pittsburgh was informed on the road. It should be here within a few days.

Street Commissioner Stauffer will put the hose into immediate use. For some time past the hose used by the street department has proved unsatisfactory and the street cleaners have been using that of the Fire Department. The Fire Department made a complaint that the use of the hose on the street would make it useless for fighting fires. Council got busy and ordered more hose.

South Connelleville Residents Take Refuse From There to South Side.

Warned not to throw garbage within the limits of their own borough, several South Connelleville persons yesterday brought their refuse over the borough line into Connelleville. Two loads of garbage had been dumped along Trump Run when complaint was sent into the police.

Chief of Police Hefzel sent Patrolman Tull to the South Side and on the way the policeman picked up Health Officer Rottler. The two went to the South Side and saw the garbage but nothing of violators of the ordinance. Prosecutions will follow the discovery of the offenders.

PLAYER LIMIT HELD TO 12; WILSON'S IDEA VOTED DOWN

O. & P. Managers Decide to Stand by Original Plan to Keep Payroll Down.

The Ohio & Pennsylvania league managers met in Pittsburgh yesterday and proceeded to reject Manager W. C. Wilson's suggestion that there be no limit on the number of players carried.

The rule in the league is that no team may carry more than 12 men, including the field captain. Wilson wanted this limit removed.

President G. F. Travis believes if the payroll is held down as to numbers there will be less opportunity and incentive to sidestep the $1,200 salary limit. This means that the dozen who stick will have to work.

The 12 player limit is a good one. It removes to a certain degree, the temptation for managers to practice the major league methods on a bush league income.

O. & P. Notes

Salem has signed a man 6 feet 3 inches tall weighing 200 pounds. "Paul" will likely be a great help to his parents when he attains his full stature," says the Salem Herald commenting on the recruit.

Press is becoming more familiar with the outfield. The Coker musketeer-buff player is a natural first baseman and has found his work cut out for him in the outfield.

In a game in which 15 East Liverpool "Knights" played, the Pottery City team defeated Monaca 7 to 4 Wednesday.

"All of them but 300 or better when they ask you for a job," said Manager Wilson yesterday. "But there's a big difference when they get in a game."

Manager Shannon is getting busy with the tin can. Nine players have been released and more will follow. First baseman Elmhurst, who batted .407 in the Southern Michigan league has reported.

Fans are complimenting Manager Wilson every day as to his choice of Miller for first base. The Pittsburgh boy looks like a fixture. He is a lightning pitcher, throws well and hits like a slugger.

The 600 grandstand chairs for the ball park arrived yesterday from Grand Rapids. They were sent via the Baltimore & Ohio and will be kept at the freight station until the grandstand is finished.

Wootchick showed in good form. He is a big fellow with a world of speed but lacks experience. He left yesterday for Pittsburgh. He played last year in the Railroad league.

WHEN WOMEN ARE PALE

Health Grew Better Than Rouge.

Women who are pale and feel compelled to resort to cosmetics to give their complexion a "natural" color will be pleased to know a better way. Pallor is caused by poor, thin blood—nothing else. If your blood is as rich and red as it ought to be, the skin will have that ruddy hue of health so much desired.

Miss Clara Wheeler of Brooklyn says "My blood became thin and poor last spring, making me pale and nervous. I had heard that Vinol was a splendid thing for this condition so I began using it and received great benefit. It has restored my healthy color and made me feel well again. Vinol is no excellent tonic."

We say positively that there is nothing like Vinol to enrich and purify the blood, and build up weak, run-down people. The taste is delicious and even children like to take it.

You can use Vinol without any risk for we guarantee it to be satisfactory and pay back your money if it is not. Graham & Company, Druggists, Connellsville, Pa. Vinol is sold in West Connellsville by Fred H. Harmerling, Druggist.

The partition at the shoemaker's shop at the angle fronting on South Pittsburgh street will be torn out giving several added square feet of space to the office.

COKERS WIN.

Swamp Dunbar 15 to 1 in a Slugfest.

The Connellsville O. & P. leagues proved too much for the combined forces of Dunbar and Mt. Braddock yesterday afternoon and the professionals won their game handsly 15 to 1. With the possible exception of the closing innings, when they let up, Connellsville played a grand article of ball in the way. The hitting was made up of a multitude of singles, doubles, triples and a home run. The defense was on a high order.

The new change in the infield was worked for the first time. Miller was at first, Gault at second, Miller at short and Gault at third. King Cole pitched a fair game for the Dunbar team. After the game he asked Manager Wilson for a trophy but was told that Connellsville was full up on pitchers at the present time. The score.

MINERS GET INCREASE.

Trouble in Clearfield Region Averted for Two Years.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., May 10.—The miners have completed the count of the votes cast on the question of acceptance or rejection of the new scale of wages for bituminous miners of District No. 2, U. S. M. W. of A. and find that 23,325 were for acceptance and 5,245 for rejection.

This means that there will be no more trouble in this region for the next two years and the miners will receive an increase of five per cent for outside work and 4.44 per cent for inside work.

PLANS ARE FINISHED.

Bids Will Be Asked For and Contract Awarded for Church Addition.

The finishing touches for the proposed improvements on the United Brethren church are being completed and they will be passed on by the Official Board of the church probably next week. Twenty feet will be added to the rear, giving more room for both Sunday school and the church auditorium.
